Dear Mr. Poultney,

Re: POULTNEY v POULTNEY

I am writing to notify you that the hearing of this application for permission to appeal with appeal to follow if granted under the reference B4/2010/0160 will take place at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, WC2 on 15th October 2010. You will receive no further notice of that hearing date. The hearing will take place in a courtroom open to the public with notice to any other party (i.e. at a hearing which all parties are invited to attend).

Please note that if the Court decides that the appeal may proceed it will go on to hear the appeal on the same day.

If you have access to the Internet you must check the Daily Cause List on our website (www.hmcourts-service.gov.uk) after 2.30pm on the working day before the hearing date to confirm the courtroom number and the time at which you should attend.

If you do not have Internet access you should telephone this office after 2.30pm on the working day before for details of the hearing.

Disposal of Bundles: After the hearing one set of the documents may be taken by the official transcriber and will not be returned. Any remaining sets should be collected at the end of the hearing. Those not taken will be destroyed by the Civil Appeals Office after 21 days. You may collect them from the Civil Appeals Office Registry before that date only if an appointment is made in advance.

Yours

E Martinson
